About RFM Contracting.

RFM Contracting was founded in 1995 by Robert Myer in Prescott, Arizona. In 1998, the company seized the opportunity to expand its interest in fine home building and relocated to Payson, Arizona. Robert now applies his reputation as a dedicated, hands-on craftsman to RFM.

Family owned. Quality crafted.

This family-owned and operated business specializes in hand-crafted mountain estates. It values the opportunity to share its expertise and passion for quality with future residents, just as it already has for nearly a dozen families in Crescent Communities alone. Ongoing company growth remains anchored by honesty, hard work, and strong customer relations.

CRESCENT COMMUNITIES

A home you'll love. A building process you'll actually enjoy.

To be sure, the personal touch is alive and well at RFM. The company's design/build goal is to not only create a beautiful home, but to surpass all client expectations in creating a positive building experience. This means listening to customers, equipping them with knowledge, and involving them in pivotal decisions, all while pointing out choices available to them along the way. As one recent client offered: "You have made our home-building experience more than just business. Not only will we enjoy the destination, but the many fond memories of the 'journey' itself."

A growing estate portfolio.

Seamless integration with nature. Distinctive accents. Unique living space. Workmanship and materials that respond to the special needs and climatic rigors of mountain living. RFM continues to carve a distinct niche for itself as a worthy builder of luxury homes delivering a more personal touch.
